

Events Programme 2023

- January 18th The Highbury annual bird count led by Alf Dimmock, Senior Park Ranger.
11.00am. Meet in the car park
- February 5th Wildlife Walk with Jake Williams, Senior Reserves Officer, Birmingham and Black Country Wildlife Trust. 10.30am. Meet in the car park.
- March 5 Archaeology Walk with Mike Hodder, ex City of Birmingham Archaeologist.
10.00am. Meet in the car park
- April 29th Gardening at the Henburys Wall. A member's event. 9.30am - 10.30am
- April 30th City Nature Challenge comes to Highbury. Jake Williams, Senior Reserves Officer, BBCWT.
10.30am meet in the car park.
- May 7th Spring Tree Walk with Martin Collins. Meet in the car park 10.30am
- June 18th Discover Wild Flowers at Highbury. An opportunity to plant and learn with Carolyn Morton. Meet in the car park 10.30am
- July 9th Wildflower Meadow Walk with Jake Williams, Senior Reserves Officer, Birmingham and Black Country Wildlife Trust Meet in the car park.
10.30am – 12.00pm

- July 16th A walk around the Henburys with local historian Andy Bishop. 10.30am. Meet in the car park
- July 19th Butterfly Count at Highbury with Alf Dimmock, Senior Park Ranger. Meet 11.00am in the car park
- September 1st Walk the Night with Brumbats. Meet in the car park at 7.45 pm to learn about our local bat population
- September 10th Heritage Day at Highbury. 11am – 4.00pm
- September 12th Highbury Park Friends AGM at Highbury Hall. 6.30pm – 8.30pm. Guest speaker Tori Halford from the National Trust will talk about the “Blossom Together” project that aimed to encircle Birmingham with blossom trees this year
- October 20th Fungi Foray with Lukas Large, Curator (Natural Sciences) Birmingham Museums. 10.30am meet in the car park

All events are free of charge. Everyone welcome. Please wear suitable footwear for walking over uneven ground.